

CALL FOR PAPERS

EACES Asian Workshop in Kyoto

Sustainability and Future Perspectives of Emerging Markets - Through the Lens of Asian Dynamics -

Institute of Economic Research, Kyoto University (KIER)

February 26-27th, 2009, Kyoto, JAPAN

The European Association for Comparative Economic Studies (EACES) will organize the Asian workshop in Kyoto Japan, with the support of Kyoto University (KIER), Hitotsubashi University (Russian Research Center, Institute of Economic Research), and the Japanese Association for Comparative Economic Systems. The workshop is the first organization in the Asian Area by EACES. KIER will welcome all the participants of the workshop.

The main object of the workshop is to contribute to the debate on the contemporary dynamism in emerging markets through the lens of Asian development, and to set a platform for collaboration and exchange of views in Asia. The list of temporary topics is as follows: Asian Dynamism in Transition Economies; Finance and Corporate Governance in Emerging Markets; Labor Relations in Emerging Markets. We will totally investigate the contemporary situation and future perspective of emerging markets under the drastic changes of the world economy. At the workshop, Professor Jens Hölscher (University of Brighton, EACES President) will make a keynote speech. Moreover, we will invite speakers from China and Korea.

We look forward to receive papers (not only for the above topics but also other free topics), by young and senior economists, which relate to the "Sustainability and Future Perspective of Emerging Markets". Papers' selection will be primarily based on quality rather than on preferences for particular topics. Information about the acceptance of the papers for the Asian Workshop will be sent by the end of December 2008. Please inform your name, article title, affiliation, address and abstract (not exceed 150 words).

Preliminary versions of papers (or abstracts) should be sent to Satoshi Mizobata (mizobata@kier.kyoto-u.ac.jp) no later than January 31, 2009.
